Dear Parents/Carers,

Re. Friday 12th February

We are really pleased with the progress that has been made so far this term in terms of the remote learning offer and recent tracking data suggests that pupil engagement has improved significantly in recent weeks as compared to the situation in early January. As a result, and to avoid any disruption to pupil engagement, we have taken the decision to postpone the INSET day which sat in the school calendar for Friday 12th February. This training day will now be taken at a more convenient time at a later point in the school year and staff will continue to provide remote learning right up to the end of next week. Obviously, the provision will not continue during the half term break which begins on Monday 15th February.

Thank you all for your continuing hard work trying to keep your children engaged in their work during these challenging times.

Regards,

Mr. J.N.Hicks BA (Hons) MA (Ed) NPQH
